

STOP THE HATE FESTS ON CANADIAN UNIVERSITY CAMPUSES

"I have not felt the way I feel now since 1945. I feel there are reasons for us to be concerned, even afraid ... Now is the time to mobilize the efforts of all of humanity!"

—Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel

A CALL TO ACTION

HOW CAN WE STOP THE BARRAGE OF HATE AGAINST JEWS ON CAMPUS?

- We must recognize the antisemitism that masquerades as anti-Israel propaganda is the new threat.
- We must understand that Jewish students are on the frontlines, bearing the brunt of this hatred.

HOW CAN YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

- Write to the presidents of universities where Israel Apartheid Week and other Israel-bashing events are being held and demand that these campuses not be used as venues for promoting hatred. For a list of these universities, visit www.bnaibrith.ca. Your tax dollars to these publicly funded universities demand that you be heard.
- Withhold contributions to universities that allow such vitriol. Make your donor dollars count.

Jewish students encountering antisemitism can call B'nai Brith Canada's 24/7 Anti-Hate Community Hotline at 1-800-892-2624.

Our professionals are on standby to offer support and assistance.

B'nai Brith Canada is an independently funded national Jewish human rights organization.
We need your financial support to help us fight antisemitism on campus.
